Best place to live if ... you are fancy free but want the fancy stuff in life

Once a destination only for fans of football and flatpack furniture, Wembley Park is now the UK's best place to enjoy a luxe rental lifestyle following a £2.8 billion, two-decade revamp. There's a surprising amount of green space tucked in between the shiny towers and there's plenty to do, from street food at Boxpark, a weekly farmers' market and discount shopping to concerts to parties, yoga classes and preferential offers that are available for events at the stadium and arena.
